Judge Gildersleeve Won't Grant a If Denied Admission, Habeas Cor-Receiver for Koster, Bial & Co.

But His Partners Must Not Interfere Judge Lacombe Establishes This with His Business.

Judge Gildersleeve, of the Superior to-day handed down a decision ng the motion recently made before him by counsel for Oscar Hammerein, for the appointment of a receiver for Koster, Bial & Co.

The troubles which resulted in the apon for the receiver began when Mr. Hammerstein hissed Mile. Di Dio. who has since married Stephen Thorn, well-known man-about-town, while Thirty-fourth street music hall, in which ticularly on behalf of Chinese appli-

SAYS THE CHECKS ARE HIS.

Arrest for Robbery.

Among the prisoners at the Tombs
Police Court this morning was Andrew
M. Walker, of 240 Nassau street, Brookirn, a chemist, employed at the factory of James Afflett, of this city, at West Deer Park, Walker was charged with robbing Afflett of two checks, one for 100 and the other for 120.

Walker says that on Oct. 20 he was given the checks and 11 in cash in payment for his services, and he says he is at a loss to understand why Afflett had him arrested. He was held for exsmination.
